

LUCAS COUNTY COURTHOUSE

Toledo, Ohio
2010

www.duketarchitects.com

The initial phase of the work involved investigating the status and condition of the external building surfaces and grounds, design for repair and renovation, and estimating the construction cost for the Lucas County Courthouse at 700 Adams Street, Toledo, Ohio. This included, but is not limited to, comprehensive investigation into the existing exterior building surface condition and deterioration, sunken ground around the building, drainage systems around the building; complete design for all repair and renovation work.

