

THE POINT

Village of Ottawa Hills, Ohio 2007

www.duketarchitects.com

Located in an affluent neighborhood of older homes, this stone Tudor Cottage is located on a triangular lot at the point of convergence of two tree lined streets. A new garage and addition to the west of the existing house have been shaped and proportioned to conform to the existing home, with its large chimneys and dormered roof.

